

NOT WORK • NOT HOME

A place where you are just a person.

01 Name it

Trail, water, workshop, gym, church, a table. Pick what gives you something back, even if it does not sound healthy.

02 Smallest version

Thirty minutes that repeats beats a day you keep postponing.

03 Both of you

Put both on the calendar in one conversation. Count childcare honestly.

04 Check it

Do you come back more available, or just number? Answer that one honestly.

THE TEST

A third place should never become an escape hatch from family work. If it only ever runs one direction, someone else is picking up the tab.

You are allowed to be a person outside of who needs you.
