

Two ideas each. Pick one.

01 Choose together

Two ideas each, pick one that is possible rather than impressive.

02 Protect it

Phones in the glovebox before you sit down, not face down on the table.

03 Do something

Side by side beats across a table. New beats familiar. Cheap is fine.

04 Notice

Ask what was interesting, not whether it worked.

IF IT FALLS APART

Book the next one before you get home. A rhythm survives a bad night. Waiting for the right week does not.

Curiosity is the part that wore off. It comes back with use.
