

Somewhere you are nobody's anything.

01 Name it

Trail, water, workshop, gym, church, a table. What returns you, not what sounds healthy.

02 Smallest version

Thirty minutes that repeats beats a day you keep postponing.

03 Both of you

Put both on the calendar in one conversation. Count childcare honestly.

04 Check it

Do you come back more available, or just number? Answer that one honestly.

THE TEST

A third place is not an escape hatch from family work. If it only ever runs one direction, it is not a third place, it is a tab someone else is picking up.

You are allowed to be a person outside of who needs you.
