The Resource Pack.

Every sheet in the course, in the order you will use them. Each one has a place it lives, because a practice sitting on the fridge or in the glovebox does not have to compete with the phone.

SHEET	WHAT IT IS	WHERE IT LIVES	PAGE
START	The Focus Protocol The four moves and what each stretch of the three days feels like.	The fridge	2
WEEKLY	The Sunday Board Meeting The shared week on the front, your own week on the back. Free to anyone.	The table	3
1.1	The Brain Dump Print one a week.	The desk	5
1.2	Tomorrow Matters If Filled in the night before.	The desk	6
1.3	The Driveway Card Four to a page. One for each car.	The glovebox	7
2.1	Pause, Return, Repair Agree on it before you need it.	The nightstand	8
2.2	The Date Night Card So the idea survives the week.	The wallet	9
2.3	Floor Time Has a version for couples with no kids.	The kid's room	10
3.1	The Third Place One each. Both on the calendar.	The bag	11
3.2	The Friendship Script Invite first.	The wallet	12
3.3	The Thirty Day Page The last thing you do in the course.	The table	13
CARD	The Field Card The whole course on one page.	The fridge or the car	14
FAMILY	Family tools Three optional pages for using the practices with kids.	Wherever the family is	15

PRINTING

Card sheets print four identical cards to a page: cut on the dashed lines, on cardstock if you have it. The Sunday Board prints on both sides, or as two pages. Reprint the ones you write on.

SEVENTY TWO HOURS · BEFORE LESSON ONE

Four moves. Three days.

You are changing what reaches you for three days, then watching what changes. Willpower has little to do with it.

THE FOUR MOVES

01

Remove the color

Make the phone less visually demanding.

02

Control the feeds

Choose which inputs reach you during the reset.

03

Silence the machine

Let people reach you without letting every platform interrupt you.

04

Give the phone a home

Protect one repeated moment instead of policing the whole day.

WHAT THE SEVENTY TWO HOURS FEEL LIKE

Commonly reported. Yours will not match exactly.

HOURS 0 TO 6

The phantom reach

Your hand goes to the pocket with no thought behind it. You will catch yourself unlocking a phone you had no reason to unlock.

HOURS 6 TO 18

The boredom

This is the hard part and it is the part most people quit in. Small gaps in the day that used to be filled are suddenly empty, and empty feels worse than it should.

HOURS 18 TO 36

The settle

The noise drops. Most people notice they are reaching less, that a task holds them longer, and that falling asleep gets easier.

HOURS 36 TO 72

The room gets bigger

Conversations run longer. You hear the second half of what someone says instead of the first half.

DAYS FOUR TO SEVEN · WHAT THE HABIT WILL SAY

"I have proven I can handle it now."

"Just one app. Not the bad ones."

"Ten minutes is not the same thing."

"It was a busy week. This is not a normal test."

Each one is the habit talking. Hold the arrangement fourteen days before you change anything.

THE DAILY CHECK · NOTICE, DO NOT GRADE

	DAY 1	DAY 2	DAY 3
When did I reach without deciding?	☐	☐	☐
Where was it easier to stay present?	☐	☐	☐
Which boundary is worth keeping tomorrow?	☐	☐	☐

READ IT OUT LOUD ONCE

I do not trade presence for distraction.
My phone is a tool. I am not.

The part that feels pointless is the part that is working.

FIFTEEN MINUTES · ONCE A WEEK · ONE SHEET BETWEEN YOU

The Sunday Board Meeting.

Phones in another room. Start with how you are, not the calendar.
Make the week visible, then protect one thing together.

ONE QUESTION TO START

What do we want this week to feel like, and why?

Once a month: what have you been short on lately?

01 CONNECTION

One thing I appreciated about you this week

How are we doing, honestly?

One thing I can do this week to support you

02 THE WEEK AHEAD

Commitments, handoffs, and the parts most likely to create pressure.

THE PRESSURE POINT

Where will the week feel tight, and what can we decide now?

03 HOME AND MONEY

04 PROTECT

TIME FOR US

TIME FOR EACH OF US

OUR SHARED WIN

AFTER THE MEETING · ON YOUR OWN

Your side of the week.

The front is the week you share. This side is the work, home, and personal things that are yours to carry. Five minutes, after the meeting.

01 THE THREE THAT MATTER

If these happen, the week counts.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____

02 WORK

One meaningful target, one block to protect, one loose end to close.

03 HOME AND PEOPLE

What the house needs, who needs your attention, one thing to protect.

04 WHEN THE WEEK GETS TIGHT

The pressure point you can prepare for now.

05 FRIDAY CHECK IN

What held up? What should change next week?

FIFTEEN MINUTES · ONCE A WEEK · PEN ON PAPER

Put it somewhere other than your head.

Do not organize while you write. Empty it first. When the list slows down, wait a minute and ask what you are still trying not to forget. Then mark each item D for do, C for choose, T for talk, or R for release.

01 WORK

Anything unfinished, promised, or avoided.

02 HOME

Repairs, errands, the thing on the counter.

03 MONEY AND ADMIN

Bills, forms, renewals, the call you keep not making.

04 ME

Health, friendships, the thing you used to do.

Once it is on paper, your head can let go of it.

TOMORROW MATTERS IF

Decide it before the day decides for you.

One target, chosen while today is still fresh. Maintenance is real work and it comes second, on purpose rather than by default.

01 THE ONE THING

Concrete enough that you will know when it is done.

02 THE BLOCK

Twenty five, fifty, or ninety minutes. A real one beats a perfect one.

WHEN IT STARTS

HOW LONG

WHERE

WHAT IS OFF

03 THEN THE MAINTENANCE

The upkeep you choose, after the one thing is done.

04 WHAT I WILL NOT DO TOMORROW

A day has edges or it has none.

THE DRIVEWAY CARD

Two minutes before you go in.

01 Stop

Engine off. Phone silent and out of your hand.

02 Name it

Say what followed you home. Decide what belongs to tomorrow.

03 Breathe

Three slow breaths, longer on the way out.

04 Choose

Who do I want to be for the first ten seconds?

IF YOU DO NOT DRIVE HOME

Close the laptop, write the next work thing down, walk to the end of the street and come back in. The doorway matters more than the car.

You get to decide how you carry the day in.

LESSON 1.3

PAUSE · RETURN · REPAIR

Before pressure picks your answer.

01 Pause

Stand up, move, three long exhales. Then answer respectfully, or say you need a minute.

02 Name the time

A pause is only a pause if you say when you are coming back. Ten minutes counts.

03 Return calm

Open with what is true and useful. Skip the defense and the list of their faults.

04 Repair

If you were sharp, name it without an excuse and ask what would help.

AGREE ON THIS BEFORE YOU NEED IT

A break called mid argument sounds like walking out. A break you both agreed on last Tuesday sounds like the plan working.

Take the pause, then come back when you said.

CHOOSE · PROTECT · NOTICE

Two ideas each. Pick one.

01 Choose together

Two ideas each, pick one that is possible rather than impressive.

02 Protect it

Phones in the glovebox before you sit down. Face down on the table does not count.

03 Do something

Side by side beats across a table. New beats familiar. Cheap is fine.

04 Notice

Ask what was interesting. Skip whether it worked.

IF IT FALLS APART

Book the next one before you get home. A rhythm survives a bad night. Waiting for the right week does not.

EYES FIRST, THEN FOLLOW

Fifteen minutes. They lead.

01 Eyes first

Put the phone down and answer the bid. If you cannot yet, say when, then keep it.

02 Get level

Floor, passenger seat, side of the bed. Whatever works for both bodies.

03 Let them pick

Do not improve the game, teach the lesson, or steer it somewhere useful.

04 End clean

A warning before time is up. Say what you enjoyed and when you are back.

IF THERE ARE NO KIDS IN THE HOUSE

Point it at each other. A partner bids for attention too, just once and quietly. Let them pick the subject and do not turn it into logistics.

Eye level is the whole technique.

LESSON 2.3

NOT WORK · NOT HOME

A place where you are just a person.

01 Name it

Trail, water, workshop, gym, church, a table. Pick what gives you something back.

02 Smallest version

Thirty minutes that repeats beats a day you keep postponing.

03 Both of you

Put both on the calendar in one conversation. Count childcare honestly.

04 Check it

Do you come back more available, or just number?
Answer that one honestly.

THE TEST

A third place should never become an escape hatch from family work. If it only ever runs one direction, someone else is picking up the tab.

You are allowed to be a person, too.

LESSON 3.1

INVITE FIRST

Specific beats we should hang out.

01 Pick one person

Someone you already like being around. You are not choosing a best friend.

02 Be specific

I am riding Saturday at eight, want to come? Skip the we should do something sometime.

03 Ask again

Schedules are real. One no is a calendar. Three is an answer, and that is fine.

04 Go deeper later

Start shoulder to shoulder. Ask a real question once there is something to hold it.

WHY THIS MATTERS AT HOME

A relationship asked to be the only close one either of you has will buckle under a job nobody gave it. Protect each other's friendships like your own.

The worst answer is a no you survive.

THE THIRTY DAY PAGE · THE LAST THING YOU DO IN THE COURSE

Keep the two that helped.

You do not have to keep everything you tried. Choose two between you, give each a moment and a response, and leave the rest alone.

01 PRACTICE ONE

When this happens, we will do this.

THE PRACTICE

Which sheet, and who is doing it.

THE CUE

The moment that sets it off.

THE SMALLEST VERSION

What it looks like on a bad week.

02 PRACTICE TWO

Same shape. Two is the limit, on purpose.

THE PRACTICE

Which sheet, and who is doing it.

THE CUE

The moment that sets it off.

THE SMALLEST VERSION

What it looks like on a bad week.

03 WHAT WE ARE LETTING GO

The ones that did not fit this season. Write them down so they stop nagging.

04 THIRTY DAYS FROM NOW

What happened. Nobody is grading either of you.

ALL THE WAY HERE · LIVES ON THE FRIDGE OR IN THE CAR

Return. Lead. Keep.

Nine practices on one page. Use the move that meets the moment in front of you.

01

Return

1.1 The Sanctuary

Put open loops on paper.

1.2 Focus Mode

One target before maintenance.

1.3 The Driveway Pause

Park. Name it. Breathe. Enter.

02

2.1 Emotional Thermostat

Pause. Return. Repair.

2.2 Date Night Experiment

Choose. Phones away. Notice.

2.3 The Floor General

Eyes first. Let them lead.

03

3.1 The Third Place

Return to one restoring place.

3.2 The Friendship Script

Make one specific invitation.

3.3 Mission Debrief

Keep two for thirty days.

WHEN YOU NOTICE THE DRIFT

1. What has my attention?
2. Who or what is in front of me?
3. What is one useful move now?

THE THREE PHONE BOUNDARIES

Eyes first

Answer the person before the phone.

Give it a home

One drawer, bag, or charging place.

Stop before screen

Set up the drive. Look up at the curb.

MY NEXT USEFUL MOVE THIS WEEK

Practice before completion.

THREE DAYS · THE ADULTS GO FIRST

Get one moment back together.

Pick one moment that repeats, like dinner, the ride to school, or bedtime. The kids help choose the rules, and you try it for three days. It is an experiment, so nobody gets punished.

01 THE MOMENT WE WANT BACK

Dinner, the ride to school, bedtime, a game, Saturday morning.

02 WHAT IS PULLING US AWAY NOW

Name the pattern without blaming one person.

03 OUR THREE DAY EXPERIMENT

Where will devices live? When does it start and end? What exceptions do we need?

04 WHO DOES WHAT

The adults model it first. The kids help choose.

SMALL AND REPEATED

One small thing worth coming back to.

A tradition gets its meaning from repeating. It can be small and cheap. What matters is that it still happens on a hard week.

01 WHAT IT PROTECTS

Connection, play, faith, rest, food, movement, service, making things.

02 THE SMALLEST VERSION

The activity, day, time, and place, plus the version that works on a hard week.

03 EVERYONE GETS A SAY

What will the adults organize? What can the kids choose?

04 THE PLAN

Write it down so it survives the week.

Talk side by side.

Make room for a real conversation without cornering them, interrogating them, or turning the first answer into a lecture.

01 BEGIN BESIDE THEM

Drive, walk, make food, fix something, or sit somewhere neutral.

02 ONE EASY INVITATION

Want to ride with me? Want to get something to eat? Can you help me with this?

03 FOUR QUESTIONS WORTH KEEPING

Ask one. Let the silence sit.

WHAT IS TAKING UP YOUR HEADSPACE?

Listen more than you answer.

WHAT ARE ADULTS MISSING?

About your world, right now.

LISTEN, THINK, OR ACT?

Do you want me to listen, help you think, or help?

WHAT WOULD HELP THIS WEEK?

One thing that would make it easier.
