THE SHORT FUSE CARD

About a second between surge and words.

01 Catch
Jaw, face, voice, fists, the quiet. Know your three signs.

02 Reset
Sixty seconds. Step out. Three slow breaths, longer out than in.

03 Return
Back when you said, with one calm sentence.

04 Repair
Within the hour. What you did, that it was wrong, sorry. No but.

SAY THIS

I am too wound up to answer well. Give me ten minutes. I will come back. And later: I snapped at you. That was wrong. I am sorry.

WRITE YOURS, THEN COPY IT ONTO THE BACK OF A CARD

Know your signs before you need them.

Most men have three: some mix of a tight jaw, a hot face, a clipped voice, a clenched fist, or a quiet everyone in the house knows. Ask the people you live with. They already know yours.

03 MY PAUSE SENTENCE

Say when you will be back.

04 MY REPAIR SENTENCE

What you did, that it was wrong, sorry. Then stop.

05 WHAT I WAS CARRYING IN THE HOUR BEFORE

Write it down after each time you snap. The pattern is the lesson.
