HALF A DAY ALONE · PHONE IN THE TRUCK · PEN ON PAPER

Hear yourself before you change anything.

Walk or sit for the first hour and let your head run. When it quiets down, answer these three. Write until you have said the true thing, even if it is one sentence.

01 WHAT AM I TIRED OF PRETENDING IS FINE?

02 WHO GETS MY BEST, AND WHO GETS THE REST?

03 IF NOTHING CHANGES, WHAT DOES MY LIFE LOOK LIKE IN FIVE YEARS?

If you cannot get away at all, that is your first answer.

THE LAST HOUR

The next ninety days.

One page to yourself about what you want the next ninety days to look like. Read it again tonight. Tell one person one thing you wrote, if you are willing.

04 IN NINETY DAYS, I WANT

Home, work, your body, the people who count on you. Plain words.

05 WHAT TO BRING

- [ ] A notebook you will keep for the course
- [ ] Two pens
- [ ] Water and food
- [ ] A layer for the weather
- [ ] A watch, if you want to keep time
- [ ] Told one person where and when

06 WHERE AND WHEN

THE PLACE _____

THE DATE _____

BACK BY _____

WHO KNOWS _____